Less than a hundred miles away (and 200 smiles) is the Two Wheels Only Motorcycle Resort (TWO) in Suches, Georgia. In addition to being convenient to the challenge of "The Dragon" the Suches area offers many other fun options for the rider.

If you're into hiking, the Appalachian Trail is only two miles away. Dahlonega, 16 miles south, is the site of the nation's first major gold rush in 1828. Dahlonega offers a gold museum and gold mine where you may hone your gold panning skills, and is now the locale of several world-class wineries that offer tours and wine tasting. White water rafting, river tubing, horseback riding, rock climbing, canoeing, and canyon exploring are all within a short riding distance.

The Iron Mountain Inn, Butler, Tennessee. Enjoy an Appalachian Mountain Vacation – just bring a clean shirt and toothbrush - we supply the rest.
